

Congratulations to Kerri Crawford who has won the Law Society of the Northern Provinces President's Award for 2013. Kerri's award will be presented at the Annual General Meeting of the Law Society on 9 November 2013. When deciding on the recipient of the prize, the Law Society takes into consideration the results obtained by the nominees in the Attorneys' Admission Examination, the nominees' personal achievements in other fields and their personal qualities.

Kerri – we are extremely proud of you.

Kind regards
Rob
